

K-Love has been a part of my family and friends for four years. We listen to it everyday and value the music and encouragement. We would feel lost without it. K-Love supports our community with upcoming events locally and away. They have encouraging words to help through every situation and pray for each and everyone of us. It is necessary to have K-Love available because we are one country under God and K-Love is a true testimony to those words.